

Amended Selection Criteria for
The Patrick Lee Carmody Fund Scholarship

The purpose of the Patrick Lee Carmody Fund is to provide continuing support for scholarships for Western Carolina University students who are majoring in the B.S. in Communication (Radio-Television) program

1. A three- member committee, appointed by the chief administrative officer in the area of communication (radio-television), will review all potential candidates for the scholarship.
2. Eligible candidates for the scholarship will comprise all WCU students who have declared a degree in Communication (major in the field of radio-television) and lack at least one term of full-time study to complete the degree program.
3. The committee shall recommend the recipient(s) of the scholarship award(s) to the university-wide scholarship committee for final approval.
4. Criteria for the scholarships will be established and revised as appropriate by the committee. The criteria will take into account (a) the student's academic achievement, (b) potential civic and social activity, and (c) participation in and contributions to student programs and activities at WCU.
5. There will be no restriction on the number of times a student may receive the scholarship.
6. A single award of the scholarship shall be to a student in the Electronic Media concentration in the communication degree. If sufficient funds allow the awarding of more than one scholarship the following procedure shall govern the Awards - #1 - to a student in Electronic Media and - #2 - a student in any other concentration in the degree. All additional awards are for qualified students in all concentrations in the degree.
7. If the discipline's name changes over time, then the reading of this document can be changed to conform to those changes in the name, but the spirit of this document is to remain in and on the same plane.
